

Siyahlola Presidential Monitoring
Venue: TUT Soshanguve Campus
Date: 23 June 2015

By William Phalane: GCIS, Head Office

The Information Resource Centre (IRC) in conjunction with GCIS Gauteng Provincial Office team attended and exhibited at the Siyahlola Presidential Monitoring at the Tshwane University of Technology (TUT), Soshanguve campus. The main purpose of the initiative was for the President to monitor the living condition of students, after complaints were received from students a few months ago. The visit was also part of Youth Month activities under the theme “Youth moving South Africa forward”. The President visited a number of sites in Soshanguve before addressing the community at the Gencor hall, TUT Soshanguve campus.

The proudly TUT students want to work for GCIS after completing their studies

Mr Senoelo searching for information while Mr Mkhize handed out publications to students.

Mr Mkhize from GCIS having an interactive Information sharing session with students

Mlungisi wanted to know how to open a business and we connected him with Business Connect newsletter and other relevant information.