

government communications

Department: Government Communication and Information System
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

Minister Faith Muthambi at Musina, Limpopo during the Campaign Against Attacks on Foreign Nationals
Friday 24 April 2015
By Thanyani Netshikweta: GCIS, Limpopo

Minister Muthambi promoting the “STOP ATTACKS” campaign Beit Bridge boarder at Musina Limpopo province during anti xenophobia campaign.

Minister Muthambi interviewed by SABC during the event at Musina Beit Bridge.

government communications

Department:
Government Communication and Information System
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

Thabe Mogoboya from Lawyers for Human rights based in Musina says that the law is against these criminals who are fighting other community in the names of xenophobia. "Everyone should be protected in the country regardless of what he or she coming from. He condemned such barbaric behaviour of fighting people in Gauteng and KZN.

Ethiopian Ertiran community, Mersha Solomon Yirga condemned xenophobic element. "We all live in Africa without borders before. The South African knew that they were Africans before becoming South African. As foreign international here in Musina we are happy because citizen treated us like brothers and sisters. We are worried about these hooligans behaviours reported in Gauteng and Kwazulu Natal (KZN). That type of behaviour is mishits and intolerance" said Mersha.

Thohoyandou Cluster policing head General Baloyi in full uniform is supported by Thohoyandou Block F different racial community.

Members of Block F policing forum at Thoyandou block F

University of Venda students condemned the attacks on foreign nationals element within communities.

University of Venda students are against attacks on foreign nationals.