Pre and during – State of the Nation Address pictorial report

Pre event was held at Mbazwana shopping complex – mobilizing the public to watch President Speech as President address the nation on government successes over the past 20years. The actual live screening was then held at Makhasa area (Khulani Special School – disabled learners). Disabled learners were given the opportunity to forming part of the national programme – watching a live feed of president address and had a chance to receive brief clarification on issues covered during the address.

Community members at shopping complex were reached whilst waiting for public transport, learners from school also waiting for transport. Young males – whilst discussing soccer related issues were served with leaflet as reminded to watch SONA.

Khulani Special School: learners dancing and chanting whilst waiting- setting up of the live screening.

Learners and parents waiting for the link were informed of the proceeding of the activity.

Discussion session was held after president address: pic 1- participants' engagement as were briefed on President's key issues; pic 2 – Gogo Nsukwini voicing out her accolade and sentiment based on the address. She was pleased of the address mostly because – Khulani School has benefited on state of the art new school funded by department of education.
