

government
communications

Department:
Government Communication and Information System
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

PICTORIAL EVIDENCE OF THE MEMORIAL SERVICE AND FUNERAL OF THE AMAXHOSA KING MPENDULO ZWELONKE SIGCAWU

27/11/2019 (Memorial service)

Eastern Cape Premier, Oscar Mabuyane writing down his words of condolences, sending his sympathy to the late AmaXhosa King family at Abbotsford Christian Centre before the memorial service.

Above: People including the King child, sharing their moments with the king and describing how he was around his people and him in general

The family, including the wives of the late AmaXhosa King, Mpendulo Zwelonke Singcawu attending the memorial service as the country celebrates the well-lived life.

Hundreds of people gathered at Abbotsford Christian Centre in East London to celebrate the life of the late AmaXhosa King, Zwelonke Mpendulo Sigcawu

Strategic media interviews co-ordinated

Above: Family spokesperson, Xhanti Sigcawu, speaking with the SABC and E-TV on the issue of funeral time change, as it was initially discussed that the funeral will start at 7:00 am.

Above: Cogta MEC, Xolile Nqata interviewed by the SABC outside the Abbotsford Christian Centre building on the day of the memorial service Above: Eastern Cape premier, Oscar Mabuyane interviewed by the SABC about the passing of the AmaXhosa King and how the Eastern Cape government are being affected by his passing.

Above: Chief Mwelo Nonkonyana, Chairperson of the House of Traditional Leaders, interviewed by the SABC.

29/11/2019 (Funeral service)

Above: Thousands of people gathered at Nqadu Royal Palace to say the final goodbyes to the King of AmaXhosa, King Zwelonke Mpendulo Sigcawu.

Above: SA Military along with mourners, heading to the graveyard where the King was to be laid to his final rest.

Above: King Zwelonke Mpendulo Sigcawu's final resting.