

PICTORIAL REPORT

16 Days of Activism IRC Outreach

30 November 2023: Atteridgeville, Tshwane, Gauteng

On 30 November 2023, GCIS Information Resource Centre (IRC) held 16 Days of Activism IRC outreach campaign at Atteridgeville Stadium Plaza in Tshwane. The team encouraged members of the public to be responsible, not engage in domestic violence and made awareness about the 16 Days of Activism. As part of campaign to make them aware of the 16 Days of Activism, the team communicated 16 Days of Activism Key messages. The team also distributed Vuk'uzenzele Newspapers, the Constitution booklets, GBVF leaflets and Department of Justice Directory and Children rights colouring books among others.

Below: GCIS officials distributing information material and some of the commuters who received the information.

Some of the community members who received information during the activation.

Some of the distribution material shared during the activation.

GCIS Officials engaging with the community members during the activation.

Photos by: GCIS