

DEVELOPMENT COMMUNICATION ACTIVITY NAME	Fight Against Attacks Foreign Nationals; King Goodwill Zwelithini
WIMS REFERENCE NUMBER
DATE OF THE EVENT	2015/04/20
VENUE &amp; AREA	Moses Mabhida Stadium ; eThekwini

DC ACTIVITY SYNOPSIS:

King Goodwill Zwelithini convened a Fight Against Attacks on Foreign Nationals Imbizo at the Moses Mabhida Stadium in Durban on 20 April 2015. His Majesty spoke out against the recent spates of violent attacks directed at foreign nationals. He strongly condemned the violence saying peace should prevail in South Africa. The King called on traditional leaders to protect foreign nationals and ensure a peaceful reintegration into the community after thousands were displaced.

KwaZulu-Natal Premier Senzo Mchunu, MEC for Economic Development Mike Mabuyakhulu, Cllr James Nxumalo and Ministers for Home Affairs Malusi Gigaba and State Security David Mahlobo were in attendance. Religious leaders led the Imbizo in prayer.

PHOTO TESTIMONIALS WITH CAPTIONS:

ABOVE: His Majesty King Goodwill Zwelithini flanked by Ministers; for State Security David Mahlobo, Home Affairs Malusi Gigaba and KwaZulu-Natal Premier Senzo Mchunu with eThekwini Metro Mayor Cllr James Nxumalo, Inkosi Phathisizwe Chiliza and MEC Economic Development and Tourism, Mike Mabuyakhulu at anti-xenophobia Imbizo.

BELOW: King Goodwill Zwelithini called for peace and for foreign nationals to be protected.

FAR LEFT: Home Affairs Minister Malusi Gigaba, Premier Senzo Mchunu with King Goodwill Zwelithini. The King called for peace and for foreign nationals to be protected.

Above and right left: Several media houses were in attendance as well as religious who prayed for peace and unity at the Imbizo at Moses Mabida.

Thousands of people flocking into the Moses Mabhida Stadium on 12 April to listen to the King deliver his speech.

ABOVE and RIGHT:
Amakhozi and Amabutho arrive in high spirits at Moses

ABOVE: Imbizo attendees in Zulu traditional attire. Most felt that the violence against foreign nationals was unnecessary but action needed to be taken against undocumented immigrants.

Right: Amabutho listen attentively as King Zwelithini delivers his speech.

