

Oudtshoorn Thusong Service Centre Career Open Day, a huge success: 14 November 2013

Unemployed youth access valuable information from the Department of Labour on how to write your CV and prepare for interviews.

Officials from Department of Social Development explain to and assist post grade 12 pupils to apply for social work bursaries.

University of South Africa (Unisa) and Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University (NMMU) officials help pupils to apply for the various study opportunities at their institutions.

Officials from the Independent Electoral Commission hard at work, registering youth for next year's general elections.

The GCIS information stand was the first entry point for youth at the Career Open Day

Minette from South Cape College assists youth with applying for vocational studies and bursaries.