Africa Month, IRC Outreach- Pretoria
Outcome 14: Nation Building and Social Cohesion
By: William Phalane: GCIS, Head Office

The GCIS Information Resource Centre officials went on a Community Outreach at Mabopane train station on 05 May 2017, the outreach was in commemoration of Africa Month. Officials exhibited and distributed government information material to both young and old citizens of Mabopane and Soshanguve in Tshwane. The objective was to disseminate Government information products to members of the public using the Mabopane taxi rank and train station to attract more audience.

Below are pictures of the event:

A copy of Vuk'uzenzele with and SA and AU flags as well as CD for both the anthems were also appreciated and a Gentle by the name of Tiego raise an insight about the use of English language only on the AU national anthem.

Most of the youth in the area enquired about internship programmes in government and were encouraged to visit the DPISA website for vacancies.

Name of Respondent: Mr Akwuyekpu

“Being African for me, means we have the best values as fellow Africans and we embrace them, because our values define us. We have so much Ubuntu and you don’t get that anywhere”.
