

government
communications

Department:
Government Communication and Information System
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

Anti-corruption, 16 Days of Activism and World AIDS Month activation

06 December 2018, Tshwane, Gauteng

On the 6th December 2018 GCIS through its Information Resource Centre (IRC), its Gauteng Office, and Community Development Workers in partnership with NGOs such as Siyanqoba, Stay Alive, Future Families and She Conquers which is under the City of Tshwane, hosted an activation campaign focusing on anti-corruption, 16 Days of Activism against Women and Children Abuse and World AIDS Month. The activation was held at Denlyn Mall in Mamelodi West, Tshwane. The officials from the organisations communicated about the services their organisations offer and provided their services to the community of Mamelodi.

Officials engaging with the community members during the activation.

Officials giving the community members red ribbons to commemorate World AIDS Month. Community members receiving the information materials. Some of the products distributed during the activation.

Mofokeng David said:

“It is a good initiative that you guys come here to provide us with your services. I like it because we don’t have information. With regards to anti-corruption, I have a problem with whistle blowing. I think whistle blowers should be more protected by the law so that they are not victimised. Government should do something about this issue because even if the individuals use private numbers or report anonymously they end up being known.”

Queen Koki said:

“Your programmes inspires us as young people, because we learn from each other. We will share the information we received here with our fellow youth in Eersterust.”

Compiled by Valencia Rachuene, Willy Phalane and Robbie Senoelo.