

Ekurhuleni pledges to fight attacks on foreign nationals

By Jabob Molete: GCIS, Gauteng

Trade and Industry Deputy Minister Mzwandile Masina, Ekurhuleni Executive Mayor Mondli Gungubele and Gauteng Legislature Deputy Speaker Uhuru Moiloa attended a stakeholder engagement dialogue on 22 April. The objective was to mobilise various stakeholders to condemn and support initiatives aimed at curbing attacks on foreign nationals in the City of Ekurhuleni. A pledge was signed in support of government campaign: “We are One Humanity” which seeks to advance social cohesion, national and international solidarity to end attack on foreign nationals.

Children from Rose of Hope Early Childhood Development joins thousands to call for peace.

Executive Mayor Gungubele condemns attacks on foreign nationals and urges everyone to advance social cohesion.

Gauteng Legislature Deputy Speaker Moiloa added his voice to condemn all forms of discrimination.

Various stakeholders and community members attending the dialogue.

Deputy Minister Masina addressing the public at the event.

Executive Mayor Gungubele pledging to advance social cohesion by signing the pledge.

Deputy Minister Masina signing the pledge.

Interfaith Chairperson Pastor Xola Nzo, Deputy Speaker Moilola, Executive Mayor Gungubele and Deputy Minister Masina after signing the pledge.

Five-year-old Kutlwano from Rose of Hope signing the pledge.

People came in numbers to support the dialogue and show solidarity against attacks on foreign nationals.

Pledge after being signed by attendees.