

Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela

18 July 1918 – 5 December 2013

People from all over Cape Town and surrounding areas including tourists gathered on the Grand Parade in their numbers to pay their last respects to our Former President Rolihlahla Nelson Mandela. The event included members of the Defence force, who took time off and honour our hero.

TRIBUTE TO MANDELA

LEFT: Not only were people watching the live broadcast, but others, young and old, also were writing their messages of support in memory of the Mandela family.

RIGHT: On the other side, people were still bringing their flowers, flags, Mandela T-shirts, pictures, etc as a way of paying their last respect the former member of state.

BELOW: "Safety comes first" said 107 Emergency Line personnel when interviewed. Also the City of Cape Town's Disaster and Emergency services were on stand-by to ensure safety and security of the public in the event. This included police patrols, traffic officers, paramedics, and fire department officers.

Issued by: GCIS (Western Cape)

