

Kwazulu-Natal Provincial Memorial Service – 13 December 2013

Pictorial report

At the provincial memorial service we had sporting team coming from Spain who came to witness the service

GCIS Official – Jacob Mkhize assisting security guards sharing his last words to bid farewell to Tata (writing on condolences book)

When the young man was writing on the condolences book, he insisted that let his message be read by Mandla Mandela

VIPs also had the opportunity to share their words of support as they took turns to write on the condolences book

Yes indeed, he ensured that he is not left behind. His words were shared as he even pose for the photo shoot.
