SALGA ANTI-CORRUPTION NMA SUMMIT (26 - 29 NOV 2013)

27. 11. 2013

LEFT: Early hours before Day 2 of the summit begins, Topsy and Zuki had a chance to meet with the SALGA CEO: Mr. Xolile George. RIGHT: Zuki, John (WC Intern), and Topsy preparing information products before the event starts.

Approximately 800 officials visited the Thusong Service Centre exhibition stall since the official opening of the Conference. While delegates appreciated Government efforts of expanding access to information and services to all its citizens, they also reaffirmed their commitment to support the Programme through strengthening inter-governmental relations and cooperation.

The event had more than 45 exhibitors, these included Government Departments, Vodacom, Samsung Enterprises Mobility, Enviro Loo, Institute of Municipal Finance Officers, to name but a few. Bottom Right: Information products distributed on the event was Thusong Service Centres Contact & Information Directory, Thusong leaflet and notebook, Vuk'uzenzele, Small Business Connect, and South African Yearbook 2012/13

On the Cape Winelands Municipality stall, GCIS officials (Peter, Zuki, and Topsy) had a chance during lunch-time to face up with their phobia of snakes and mingle with a female python.
