President Jacob Zuma welcomes His Excellency Mr. Luiz Inacio Lula Da Silva

South Africa strongly believes that President Lula's visit to our country will, among others, give political impetus to the advancement and consolidation of our bilateral relations; built on the successes of President Zuma's visit to Brazil last October, especially on the importance of the joint commission and a more determined focus on the various aspects of our bilateral programmes. The two Presidents will also discuss and review issues related to bilateral cooperation, following the report of the fourth meeting of the joint commission held at senior officials' level on 5 to 6 May 2010, as well as the elevation of South Africa - Brazil relations to a strategic level. Deputy President Motlanthe will attend the official welcome ceremony.
