

NATIONAL ENERGY SAVINGS CAMPAIGN

You've been waiting for it and it's finally here....

On Saturday, 28 March 2009, at 8:30 pm, millions of people worldwide will switch off their lights to make a statement of concern about the future of our planet as part of Earth Hour 2009, an event led by the World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF).

1000 cities in over 80 countries have already agreed to take part in Earth Hour including Cape Town, Johannesburg, Durban, London, Paris, Rio de Janeiro, Sydney, Rome and Dubai with more signing up every day.s

Participating in Earth Hour is easy, fun and free. All you need to do is sign up on www.earthhour.org.za.

So join other South Africans and the world in switching off your lights for just one hour.

Let's do it - together

The National Energy Efficiency Campaign

save it.
