Below is one on one with the Mnister: Community members raising their concerns.

Patience Ngobeni requested the Minister to ask parliament to bring back death penalty so that rape perpetrators can stop raping young girls. She also accused the Minister of coming to the area to campaign for local government elections.

Samuel Baloyi “ As an old man, I feel deeply hurt by lack of tertiary institutions in our local area, as a result our kids travel to far places and we don’t have enough money for their accommodation and study fees”

Bejani Khosa on behalf of SANCO submitted a list of issues which he needs the Minister to attend to. He however emphasised shortage of class rooms and requested for renovations of Vungela Primary School.

Josephine Khosa is worried about house breaking, shortage of police vans, kidnaping of young kids, murder and shop breakings in Tiyani and the surrounding villages.
