

government
communications

Department:
Government Communication and Information System
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

South Africa Free of Gender Based violence Act against Gender Based Violence, it's a right thing to Do

"VIKELA MZANSI - KWANELE!

COMMUNITIES UNITED IN PREVENTING VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN AND CHILDREN"

16 Days Activism Campaign on No Violence against Women is an annual awareness raising campaign observed globally. The purpose of the campaign is to address policy and legal issues; as well as campaign for the protection of survivors of violence and to call for the elimination of all forms of gender based violence. Its against this background that GCIS, Thuthuzela Care Centre, Social Development SAPS , DCSR Health has embarked on organising activation campaign to maximise communication around 16 days of activism and encourage members of the community of Kwa – Dela location in Msukaligwa to act against gender based violence and Speack out on any form of violence, various communication platforms were used on the days. Platforms such as Intersection, Door to Door, street dialogues

Enough Is Enough Stop Gender Based violence, Vikela Mzansi - Kwanele

Ms Jabulisile Langa, TCC coordinator from Thuthuzala Care Centre Ermelo hospital encouraged members of the community to Speak Out against gender Based violence

State vehicles making noise against gender based violence on the streets of Kwa Dela location

Enough is enough; let's act against gender based violence chanting on the streets of Kwa – Dela

Stakeholders distributing 16 days of activism pamphlets at Davel shopping centre

Door to Door campaign distributing 16 days of activism pamphlets

Door to Door activation , distributing 16 days pamphlets creating awareness on 16 days of activism

Ward Cllr with the 16 days poster and other stakeholders attentively to issues raised by community members

Area Social worker creating awareness on the Disability and children rights

Member of the community engaging on the issues affecting single parents regarding child support

Community Policing Officer Mr L Nkutha highlighted the importance of reporting cases of child abuse. VIKELA MZANSI – KWANELE

Compiled by Mr V. Cindi

GCIS- 0824823322