

OUTCOME 3: ALL PEOPLE IN SOUTH AFRICA ARE AND FEEL SAFE

Anticorruption activation in Belle Ombre Train Station on 02 November 2018

Corruption is a dishonest or illegal behaviour/ act by people in power for personal gain. It involves a person paying a bribe and the one receiving a bribe and it exist in government, businesses and civil society. Moreover, government has taken an initiative to fight corruption by making awareness on corruption. This is evident on the various campaign that take place around the country informing people about corruption, the types of corruption and what and how the society can do to combat corruption in our society and communication anti-corruption messages..

One of this events took place on 02 November 2018 in Belle Ombre train station in Marabastaad Pretoria. The activation was hosted by Government Communication and Information System (GCIS) Information Resource Centre (IRC), Marketing and distribution team and was supported by the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) team. The purpose of the event was to communicate and distribute anticorruption messages and distribute other government publication materials.

GCIS and DTI exhibiting during the activation

DTI official communicating their services with the commuters

GCIS officials communicating Anti-corruption messages with the commuters

GCIS official handing over Vuk'uzenzele Newspaper publication to the commuters.

Some of the commuters with their information materials.

Some of the publications distributed during the activation.

By Valencia Rachuene and Willy Phalane