

Deputy Minister Stella Ndabeni-Abrahams outreach in WC, Cape Town

Deputy Minister of Communication outreach in the Western Cape had four activities just in one day (first she joined the Anti- corruption Activation in Cape Town Train Station in the morning hours, part two was a Staff meeting, followed by a Media Engagement at Zibonele FM, and she has conducted a 20 years of freedom lecture).

Top Left: The DoC activation stall at PRASA Station which was joined by Cape Town Police Station Officers and PRASA at 06h00am. Middle: DoC officials and Casual Workers distributing Anti-corruption leaflets and other information to the commuters while they are coming from the train.

Left: DM Stella Ndabeni explaining the government campaign on anti-corruption while she also disseminating the Ant-corruption leaflets to everyone in the Station. Right: Chief Director Michael is engaging the commuters at PRASA Station also explaining the government campaign against corruption.

Left: The DM has visited Radio Zibonele FM and meets with the Board Members of the local Station. Right: After her meeting with the board she was granted with a slot to unpack the Anti-corruption campaign and not forgotten to wish good luck to the 2014 Matriculates' for their final Examinations.

Deputy Minister of Communications, Stella Ndabeni-Abrahams was on the same Friday 07 November 2014 conducted a 20 Years of Freedom lecture at False Bay College in Khayelitsha.

The last Activity of the day was a Metro Youth Gala Dinner which was organised by DoC to address and inform the young people on the four DoC strategic communication areas (Employment Related Issues, Crime, Corruption and Local Government & Basic Services).

By: Sikelela Zokufa