Together we move South Africa forward

24 May 2014 was a historic day in the lives of all South Africans as President Jacob Zuma was sworn in for his second term of office and South Africa celebrates 20 years of freedom. What was abundantly evident is that South Africa has indeed come a long way in these past 20 years as a uniquely diverse, patriotic and united nation. People that were interviewed at the screening praised government's successes in providing basic services, its initiatives towards nation building and social cohesion, infrastructure development, growing the economy and job creation.

A diverse audience attended the event in Durban.
