

Post-SoNA Tertiary Institution Screening and Dialogue

Date: 26 February 2018

Venue: Nelson Mandela University, South Campus, Port Elizabeth

Background

As part of the planned Post-SoNA Community Engagement Dialogues, Nelson Mandela Bay Municipality GCIS Office, partnered with Nelson Mandela University Media, Communication and Culture Office to host a Post SoNA screening and dialogue session for Nelson Mandela University students. The session was held on 26 February 2018, at Nelson Mandela University South Campus Auditorium.

Above Left: Dr. Janelle Vermaark (Course Coordinator-Media, Communication and Culture) at Nelson Mandela University and Mr. Ongama Mtimka (Independent Political Analyst) engaging students who were in attendance and assisting with reflections to the key highlights of the President's SoNA Speech.

Pictorial Report

Above: Nelson Mandela University students enrolled for courses such as Political Science, Media and Communication Studies attended the Post SoNA screening dialogue and showed so much interest as they watched, listened and later engaged the Independent Political Analyst's post speech analysis voicing out their own viewpoints to what the President had to say.

Pictorial Report

Above (Left and Centre): Students at Nelson Mandela University taking notes whilst the President's SoNA Speech is being screened.

Above Right: Independent Political Analyst, Mr. Ongama Mtimka making an analysis of the President's speech post the screening.