

Deputy Minister's Outreach

Programme Against Attacks On Foreign Nationals

Buffalo City Metro

26 April 2015

Deputy Minister of Communications, Stella Ndabeni-Abrahams hit the streets of Mzamomhle Township, Gonubie in East London in an outreach against attacks on Foreign Nationals. Mzamomhle has been identified as one of the areas with peaceful co-existence between South Africans and Foreign Nationals. Government was in partnership with the Ministers Fraternal, where Pastors from various denominations participated. Messages of support were received from Eastern Cape AIDS Council on behalf of civil society, SANCO, Community Police Forum, Representative of Foreign Nationals, Ministers Fraternal and a Councillor representing Executive Mayor.
