

PICTORIAL REPORT
Gender based violence dialogue with learners,
Mamelodi West, Pretoria, Gauteng
19 October 2018

GCIS hosted the Mama Albertina Sisulu Centenary dialogue on building safer and healthier communities in Mamelodi West at Dr IM Monare Primary School on 19 October 2018. The dialogue which mainly focused on gender based violence was attended by the Grade 7 learners of Dr IM Monareng Primary School and the Grade 8 learners of Vukani Manethu High School. The aim of the dialogue was to take a firm stand against violence particularly violence directed at children; to engage the learners on issues of gender based violence; and to inform them on the support and services provided by various institutions including government to victims and survivors of abuse. Stakeholders included the Tshwane Child Welfare, Commission for Gender equality, the South African Police Service, Department of Education as well as the Traditional Authority.

School learners who attended the gender based violence dialogue.

The Principal of Dr Monare IM Primary School welcoming everyone. GCIS, Commission for Gender Equality, and the South African Police Service officials engaging with the learners during the dialogue.

Stakeholders who exhibited at the dialogue. Learners received information materials from GCIS and the Commission for Gender Equality.