

government communications

Department:
Government Communication and Information System
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

PICTORIAL REPORT

LIM345 WOMEN’S DAY CELEBRATION

VENUE: MDAVULA SHOWGROUND

DATE: 11 AUGUST 2017

Mayor of LIM345 Cllr Joyce Bila ushered by over-joyed community members as she walks into the Mdavula Showground to Celebrate the 2017 Women’s Month.

“Yesterday is not ours to recover but tomorrow is ours to win or lose” said the Hon Mayor during her keynote address. She emphasised that LIM345 is prepared to assist women in uplifting their daily lives and that the killing of women and children will not be tolerated in this municipality.

Community members were treated to very beautiful Xitsonga traditional music and most of them displayed their dancing skills.

Some of the political principals who attend the event with Pastor Mahlale, second from left, she gave motivational message which was highly welcomed by mothers.

Merry Xihahlu from ka Josefa” it’s a good thing that we are being empowered through knowledge which will help us to stand up and be counted.”

Gladies Tsakani Ngoveni said she like the fact that LIM345 is committed to work with all people as they always invite the communities in their programmes.

Letty Rivombo from Madobi said although she is excited about recognition and celebration of Women’s Month she is equally worried about high youth unemployment.

Kokwani Mabasa from Mdavula “ Hina hi tsake ngopfu kuva Mfumu wu hi tsundzuka tani hiva Manana”

Giving word of support Ms Tsundzu Ndlovu the station manager of Mala FM had this to say “A woman is source of strength and has the ability to bring change and show direction”

Men were also in support of the Women’s Day celebration as they also came in their numbers to be counted in this historic event of our country.