

ANATHI MTANGA PUBLIC RELATIONS GRADUATE

Anathi is a young and passionate graduate representing the youth in the Marketing, Advertising, and Communications (MAC) Charter Council South Africa. She studied at the Nelson Mandela University and graduated in 2019, with a National Diploma in Public Relations Management. She has little experience in the industry but is always seeking opportunities to establish and grow herself in the field. The opportunity to be part of the MAC Charter Council, and be surrounded by industry giants and a wealth of knowledge, has been a learning curve and an exciting journey for her. She looks forward to putting in the work and establishing herself in the field.
